Storytelling Is Important

Storytelling become an important element for children life. Stories also become a tool for parents to bring more information for children. Indirectly, a story (fairy tales) as educational medium of noble values which give moral messages. So, for example, it is not wonder if anti-corruption education is also delivered with story. Since long time ago parents had used story as a tool of communication to teach morals in a fun way. Wether a storytelling an effective education for a family? Yes, because your children become better understood what he should do and what not to do, what is good and what is bad, without having to scold your child. The values of humanism in the story more easily understood by children than to dictate them. Such as banning your children to not do something for no apparent reason.

Storytelling requires special skills, but it is not absolute. Don't be worry because how to become a good story teller can be learned easily. The most important is how to convey the messages to your children with a story. Indeed, the conveying of messages is more effective if told in a better way. A story can develop your children's fantasy power and stimulate them to think more creatively. In addition, storytelling can form the moral development of children. It also develops the language repertory, so your children receives more vocabulary.

By a story, your children more easily to accept the circumstance occur around them and how to respond it. Storytelling habits must be developed. By storytelling there is an emotional attachment between children and parents. Parents also can instill good values so that your children has good way of life. Storytelling becomes a very effective medium for education, both moral and science.

Values which was absorbed from a story will greatly imprint on the children heart. But to tell story need a good skill, although this is not an absolute. You would be a good storyteller or not, it will affect your child, whether they enjoy and appreciate the story. Basically, to tell story is easy and everyone able to do that.

Fortunately if you are a parent who can make story, though it was only a little. By your skill you will easily to get story matter. Storytelling can be done by spontaneity. If you tell a story which not made by yourself, you must be competent with the story. You must know "the story spirit", because your children will often interrupt when listening the story. If you not competent with the story, you will get trouble. Maybe they will ask or comment about the story, characters, etc.

There are many variety of story matter: book, vcd, or you can get from internet. Are you think if your children can read they do not need storytelling from their parents or teacher? Books, vcd, or others are inanimate object, unlike you who have emotional attachment with your children. A lesson would be more fun when presented with story. Story also increase reading interest for children. For example, after finished your storytelling of "Timun Emas" or "Cinderella", you can say, "The story more exciting if you read this book!" Of course, the advice applies to children who have able to read. The activity of storytelling ever be ignored because it was considered out of dated. But the activity was promoted again because proven to be a good tool of children educational. By storytelling, messages which is delivered to children will be accepted easily, especially if done by their parents. Not only that, the relationship of parents and children will be better. After finished storytelling, it can be followed with other communications. If you scold your children before, a storytelling can be used as tool to foster good relations again, to cure his wound heart.

Whether is difficult to tell story? There are two answers. For you who usual to tell story the answer is easy. The contrary, there are many people who claim that it is not easy. Do you have to tell story like a puppeteer, that each character of the story has distinctive voice? Of course not! Indeed, the storytelling will have a plus if done with certain techniques. When told a story my father used his original voice, not like a puppeteer, there were no distinctive voice for the characters of story. But a professional storyteller, who was paid to tell a story, will not get money if he works like my father.

Is it ok to do storytelling by reading book? Yes, it is. Give a special intonation at the dialogues! I am sure, when you have done it, it is become a fun activity. It is easy, even for people who begin to do this. Maybe, you did not satisfied with the first presentation, but you can improve on the next story.

In fact, what is needed to storytelling? Time! Storytelling can be done anywhere and anytime, but it need free time. That is the reason why storytelling was done before the child sleeping. At the time, usually, children ask to be accompanied. To take them to sleep, parents do storytelling, so there is a term “bedtime story”. And it is be effective because children can reflect the content of story and absorbing the messages. Do you very busy? If your answer is yes, please take a time to spin a yarn for your children. Indeed, the activity of storytelling can be delegated to your assistant, but how about the emotion aspect? When it is happen, you lose the golden time of your child development. In this time the emotional relationship between you and your child is good established and will imprint on their heart. You do not have to tell stories every day, once a week is sufficient. You can do on a Saturday night.

Make A Spontaneous Story, Easy!

There was an advertisement on television which presented a teacher and kindergarten students who was trapped in a stuck elevator. To calm down the students, the teacher told a story spontaneously. When she finished her story the rescuer team had opened the elevator door. Although it was only an advertisement but what do you do when you have a same episode? Is it possible to create a spontaneously story? Of course you can do it because it is not a difficult work, but you have to know the technique. The idea of story can be taken from objects, animals, events, or human behavior. We can take brief incidents to create a story, as you do a reflexes movement.

To make a spontaneity story, we should be nimble to grab ideas. For example, when we eat a banana which have seeds. Why is there a type of banana which have seeds and not? Maybe, in the ancient times, there was a man who brought gravels in banana tree so the fruit have seeds..... AND SO FORTH!
